1955 GARDEN CLUB NEWS

Mrs. Clarence Mitchell has succeeded Mrs. Ainslie Carter as President of the Highlands Garden Club.

The group are pledged to maintain previous projects such as the Kelsey Memorial; to cause to have planted 100 Dogwood Trees annually and to support the North Carolina State Garden Club's program of Conservation.

Recent work of the local club included planting around the Chamber of Commerce Building and the Town Hall. Currently the club is sponsoring the rejuvenating of the Library. The estimated cost of which will be approximately $500.00.

Funds for such work are made available by the proceeds of the Annual Garden Tour and the financial

ROTARY MEETING

The regular meeting of the Highlands Rotary Club was held Tuesday evening, June 21, in the basement of the Highlands Methodist Church at 6:30 o'clock. There were fourteen Rotarian guests present at this meeting. After a chicken supper Mr. Ed Potts, presiding in the absence of President Charlie Potts, opened the meeting after which the Rotarians participated in group singing.

On Wednesday, June 15, the Highlands Rotary Club was the guest of
