QUESTIONS REGARDING LOCAL HOSPITAL

Who really owns the Highlands Community Hospital?

Ans.: The ownership of the building, land and all equipment is in the name of the Highlands Community Hospital, Inc., a non-profit corporation. This corporation was set up when the land on which the hospital is built was transferred to us, (Board of Trustees). The corporation, as indicated above, is a non-profit one, chartered under the laws of North Carolina. It has a self perpetuating Board of Trustees, many of whom were named at the time the project was started. The corporation was set up to provide Highlands community with the proper medical and hospital facilities. No Trustee is

PLANS FOR FLOWER SHOW

AND GARDEN TOURS ANNOUNCED

By - Mrs. J.M. Valentine

A Parade of Stars, the theme of the 1955 Highlands Flower Show, illustrate appropriately one of the highlights of a summer on our mountain plateau. The profusion of dahlia gardens, wildflower nooks, formal evergreens and colorful plantings grown for cut bouquets all generously star our hillsides and form a prominent part of our landscape.

From the colorful gardens of the simple mountain homes as well as from the more formal estates come the flower stars which will make up the 1955 Flower Show to be held in the school auditorium on August 13 and 14. Any and all are more than welcome to enter their exhibits.

A unique feature of this year's show will be a class for mantlepiece arrangements. Out of appropriately designed paper and

CONCERT TO BE GIVEN

Again Highlands will have the privilege of enjoying an evening of orchestral music. The Faculty and staff Orchestra of Transylvania Music Camp will give a concert on Saturday, July 23rd, in the school auditorium, at 8 p.m. James Christian Pfohl will conduct and Evelyn McGarrity will be soprano soloist. The program will present classical and popular numbers.

Highlands is indeed fortunate to be located near the Brevard Music Center, however, it is a long trip for the musicians for an evening's performance. So everyone should be present at the concert to show their appreciation for the cooperation of these musicians as a benefit of the
