HUDSON LIBRARY

Have you seen the Library with its face lifted? The building has a new roof, a new coat of paint in an attractive shade of gray, and a more convenient entrance, with concrete walks leading in from the street.

The grounds, thanks to the generosity, public spirit and hard work of members of Highlands Garden Club, have been landscaped. Native shrubs -- rhododendron, laurel, azalea -- have been set out across the front of the Library, dogwood and hemlock trees planted at the sides, a wildflower garden started, and the fastest sprouting clover known to man has suddenly transformed a bare front yard into a delicate green lawn which is set off from the street by a low white picket fence and bordered with yellow marigolds already

THE GALAX NEWS

It is our pleasure to again bring to YOU The Galax News, which has been published weekly during the summer months for the past eight years. This season it will be sold for 5¢ per copy each Thursday from June 21 through August 30.

Heretofore, The Galax News has been published through the courtesy of the Galax Theatre, but this year we felt that it would be compulsory to charge a small price for it since we have had our staff increased. You will be able to obtain a copy in all the local shops and at the box office of the Galax Theatre.

Several persons, who have already subscribed to the Galax News for the season, have expressed their feelings as being glad that we were now charging for the paper. As an old saying goes, "You always value most what you have to pay for."
If you wish to subscribe to the Galax News, phone 2495 or send your name and address to The Galax News, Box W, Highlands. The charge for a season mailing subscription will be $1.40.

Probably you new summer visitors are wondering how we have been able to publish The Galax News free of charge before this season. It has, and still is, financed through the gracious business people of Highlands and neighboring towns who have responded well in placing advertising with us.

Quite a few people have mentioned to us how glad they are that The Galax News is again being published this season. Naturally, we are delighted that you are

WANT ADS

Small WANT ADS will be published in the Galax News for $1.25. The ads are not to exceed five lines of typing.

MISS REYNOLDS

The Galax News has a new member added to its staff this summer. Miss Judy Reynolds of Tryon, N.C. will be assistant to Miss Mary Summer, editor. Miss Reynolds will be a senior at Western Carolina College next year where she is majoring in business education. She is the daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. L.C. Reynolds of Tryon.
