THE REFRESHMENT SHOP

The Refreshment Shop, noted for its tasty sandwiches, is a small shop with a big variety to choose from, and the prices are the same as when the shop was opened six years ago this July. Only nationally known products are sold at the shop and the sandwiches are not made until they are ordered and you can get such sandwiches as: ham; ham and American cheese; ham and Swiss cheese on Rye; Swiss Cheese on Rye; barbecue; Canadian bacon; bacon, lettuce and tomato; pimento cheese; egg salad; chicken salad; and roast beef. "Along with the best sandwiches in town you can get the best coffe in town."

The Refreshment Shop also has delicious sodas, sundies, and fountain drinks. They sell the Picture Craft Art products, cigarettes, candies and gum.

For delicious sandwiches and soups whu not try The Refreshment Shop? They give courteous, efficient, and quick service with every order.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Approximately one hundred members of the South Carolina Chapter of the Institution of Architecture attended a convention last Friday and Saturday at the Highlands Country Club. Special guests at the convention were members of the Association of General Contractors.

Officers of the South Carolina Chapter of the Institution of Architecture are: Robert Upshur of Columbia, S.C., president; Louis Wolf of Columbia, vice-president; and Frank Mitchell of Charleston, S.C., secretary-treasurer.

DAVID BROWN RECEIVES DEGREE

David Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Brown of Highlands and Dillard, Ga., received his bachelor degree in industrial engineering on June 9th from Georgia Tech.

He was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, secretary of the American Institution of Industrial Engineering, and a member of the Society for the Advancement of Management.

David, who has previously spent his summers in Highlands, is now employed by Gainesville Mills in Gainesville, Ga.

SILVER TEA ENJOYED

The Silver Tea presented by the Highlands Garden Club, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.T. Carter on Flat Mountain, for the benefit of the Elizabethan Garden, last Thursday, was enjoyed by a very representative group. The appointments were very beautifully arranged, and many of the guests were enthralled by the panoramic view obtained from the spacious living room windows and terrace. African violets (Mrs. Carter's pet hobby) were in profusion everywhere, as well as many other beautiful flowers.

Miss Dorothea Harbison, Mrs. Charles Quinn and Mrs. John Perry presided, in turn, over the punch bowl.

The presence of quite a number of out-of-town Garden Club members was appreciated.

Five new banner signs "Welcome to Highlands", etc., are being put up by the Chamber of Commerce.
