BRIDGE AND SAMBA PARTIES

The first of a series of weekly Bridge and Samba parties for the benefit of The Hudson Library will be held at the home of Mrs. Lyda Harcombe, Thursday evening, July 12.

Prizes have been donated and punch will be served. Each play contributes $1.00 to the Library fund each week. Tables have already been filled for the first evening's play.

Anyone interested in playing at the next party, Thursday July 19, or on later Thursday evenings, may get in contact with Miss Helen Augur, phone 2075.

It is planned to continue this series on Thursday evenings, at 7:45 p.m., through the summer. If enough people are interested, a second series may be arranged, possibly in the afternoon.

ARE YOU GETTING READY FOR HILLBILLY DAY?

By - Richard Thompson

Are you getting ready for hillbilly day? We certainly hope so. Hillbilly Day this year will feature as our theme: "Country Music". There will be from 20 to 30 Hillbilly Bands here representing 15 states to compete in a band contest all afternoon. These bands are members of the "Jimmy Rogers Society of Country Music", a nation wide organization, and this will more than likely be the best Hillbilly Day we have ever had.

They are anxious to come and be a part of our ever growing holiday and they promise to put on their best show. We are fortunate to have these bands and when the day is over we will have heard the best in country music.

In order to have the whole afternoon

WOMANS AUXILARY MEETS THIS MORNING

The Womens Auxilary of the Highlands Community Hospital will meet this morning, (Thursday, July 5) at 11:00 a.m. at the Satulah Club Room. This is an important meeting so please come and bring a sandwich. Dues are payable. Final arrangements for the Bazaar must be made.

MUSEUM NEWS

Biological Research workers at the museum are Mr. Duane F. Houck, University of North Carolina, a botanist, working on the mints; Dr. Albert E. Reynolds of De Pauw University - salamanders; and Dr. Arnold Van Pelt, Tusculum College, who is continuing studies on the altitudinal distribution of ants.

The Nature Study Classes, which began Tuesday, June 19, will meet each Tuesday and Thursday at 10 a.m. through-out the summer. Tuesday, July 3, the class had thirty-five in attendance. Children, ages 6-14 are invited to attend these classes.
