ROTARY NEWS

Lt. Governor Ernest Vandiver of Georgia was guest speaker at the weekly meeting of the Highlands Rotary Club last Tuesday evening. The Lt. Governor, who is an active campaigner and personal friend of Adlai Stevenson, spoke on "States Rights" and the current change in the thinking of the judicial branch of our federal government as concerned with States Rights, particularly segregation.

In addition to the 10 local members present there were 21 visitors. The visiting Rotarians were as follows: Yoeman Keene, Hollywood, Fla.; T.J. Drake, Lakeworth, Fla.; Don Warren, Memphis, Tenn.; Frank Eidson, Thomasville, Ga.; Harvey Trice, Thomasville, Ga.; Frank Jennings, Jacksonville, Fla.; L. C. Parker, Andalusia, (Con't. Page 11)

"THE KING AND I"

EXCELLENT - SUPERB - DELIGHTFUL, no matter the praiseword, they all fit the motion picture "THE KING AND I", in CinemaScope 55 and Technicolor, starring Deborah Kerr and Yul Brynner.

This feature, which opened in Charlotte July 15, will be shown in Highlands Sun.-Mon., July 29-30.

It is elaborate and opulent, yet gloriously warm; it is musical drama that sweeps the spectator into its enchanting orbit.

SCOUTING IN HIGHLANDS

Troop No. 7 was registered February 28, 1954 after a lapse of two years, being sponsored by the Highlands Rotary Club. They picked a leader whom they thought had nothing else to do except Scout work and it has been said that the Highlands Troop is the only troop in North Carolina with a full time Scoutmaster.

We have 32 registered scouts of various ranks from Tenderfoot to Life Scouts, also one who has been awarded the God and Country Award and three others who will be presented for the same award in November. This award is strictly up to the scout and the Pastor of his Church.

Scouting does not teach any creed, but tries to impress the importance of the Scout Oath and Law so that they will take an active interest in the Scouts Church of his choice. (Con't. page 16)

ART EXHIBITION

Draw a big red circle around Wednesday, July 25, for that is the day when Highlands will hold its first open art exhibition. It will be in the Hudson Library, East Main Street, and will be from 11:00 a.m. to 9:30 p.m....one day only. Here you will see pictures by artists of international renown and pictures by amateurs who have a wonderful time painting or drawing just for the fun of it. There will be striking portraits in oils, done in the traditional manner, the finished workmanship and perfection in the smallest detail are proof of the years of study and experience of the professional artist.

There will be water colors whose exquisite charm will delight the eye...etchings showing an exceptional delicacy of delineation,..bold charcoal sketches and vivid and vigorous abstracts. All the work of
