"THE KING AND I" (Con't.)

This is one of the finest offerings to grace the screen of the Galax Theatre this summer. Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation spent $6,500,000 in the making of this superb movie. It was photographed in CinemaScope 55 which further accentuates the magnificence of the lavish scenes because of greater clarity and depth.

Put this movie on your "must see" list.

THE BREVARD MUSIC CENTER

The Brevard Music Center presents this Thursday (July 19) evening at 8:15 a special program honoring the National Federation of Music Clubs. Southeastern Region members from 14 states, plus national officers of the Federation, will be here for the annual Mid-week activities. Ivan Davis, talented pianist and winner of the Young Artists Audition in 1955, will be featured Thursday evening in Rachmaninoff's Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini, with the Transylvania Symphony Orchestra under the baton of James Christian Pfohl. Mr. Davis, one of the most dynamic newcomers to the national concert field, has studied in Europe at the Santa Cecilia Academy in Rome on a Fulbright Scholarship. While there, he appeared in many important musical centers of Europe, including the Teatro San Carlo of Naples, and was acclaimed by critics as one of the finest pianists of his generation.

On Friday, July 20, at 8:15 the Transylvania Concert Band will perform under the direction of Paul Bryan. Joseph Wagner's
