SERIES OF PARTIES

The second in a series of Bridge and Samba parties for the benefit of the Hudson Library is being held tonight at the home of Mrs. Lyda Harcombe on Mirror Lake.

The first party, held a week ago, was a great success. Seven tables were filled (which is all the available space will accomodate), everybody had a good time, and the Library benefited accordingly. The Bridge prize, a delicious angel cake made and presented by Mrs. Russell White, was won by Mrs. John Perry. The Samba prize, an equally delicious caramel nut cake, made and donated by Mrs. Stella Caziarc, was won by Mrs. Harcombe, who insisted on cutting it and sharing it with some of the non-prize winners. The last hand of the evening was played as a Bingo game, and Mrs. Thomas Tyson won the prize--an attractive package of guest towels donated by the Blue Moon. Punch was served during the evening.

If you would like to play at future Thursday evening parties, get in touch with Mrs. Harcombe or telephone Miss Helen Augur (2075). Each player contributes $1.00 to the Hudson Library. Single players are very welcome, but if you want to be sure to be playing with others of your own bridge or Samba calibre, it is wise to make up your own table --and, of course, much easier for your hostess in planning the party.
