HIGHLANDS REVISITED

To return to Highlands after an absence of several years is an experience in living rich with the especial delight reserved for reunions with old friends, not only human, but plant and animal as well.

The postoffice about the time Mr. Mays brings the noonday mail up from Wallhalla, which he has been doing ever since the writer was a child, is full of surprise meetings with old friends and new. The air hums with the happy sound of Southern accents which is music to the ear of one accustomed to the harsher speech of the West.

The trails of Highlands which wind through the laurel and rhododendron archways dappled with shadow and splashes of sunshine are studded with reunions with old friends of the plant world. How incredible to come upon a cluster of shy

HIGH SOCIETY COMING

Bing Crosby, Grace Kelly and Frank Sinatra, each an Academy Award winner, topping the year's outstanding cast. Cole Porter's first original score for a motion picture in ten years. Louis Armstrong and His Band. Crosby and Sinatra singing together on the screen for the first time. Grace Kelly making her debut in a musical.

That's the unbeatable entertainment offered in Sol. C. Siegel's production of "High Society." The big attraction, filmed in VistaVision and color and released by M-G-M, opens Aug. 26, at the Galax Theatre.

ANNUAL MUSICAL

The colored servants of Highlands will present their Annual Musical on Sunday evening, August 19, at 8:00 in the new school auditorium.

INTER-CHURCH GROUP MEETS

The Inter-Church Group met last Monday evening and elected the following officers: The Baptist Church, Mr. Glenn Shuler; Methodist Church, Mr. Robert Ramsey; Presbyterian Church, Mr. Sidney McCarty; and the Episcopal Church, Mr. Tom Harbison.

Mr. Upton C. Ewing of Miami, Fla., and Highlands, spoke on the theology and life of Albert Schweitzer.

The Highlands School will open on Tuesday, September 4.
