"A MAN ALONE"

Ray Milland's illustrious career in pictures reaches brilliant new heights as he dons levis and a six-shooter for what is certain to be one of the most talked-about performances of the year in Republic's great drama, "A Man Alone," which plays Sat., Aug. 18 at the Galax Theatre.

Filmed in Trucolor amidst the harsh splendor of western Utah, "A Man Alone" presents such notable co-stars as beautiful Mary Murphy and rugged Ward Bond.

The gripping story opens with Milland, a notorious gunman, coming across the bodies of six victims of a stagecoach holdup as he plods alone across a western desert after his horse has died. Taking one of the stagecoach horses, he rides into the nearby town of Mesa and immediately suspected of the holdup and murders.

In the course of the grim nocturnal manhunt which follows, Milland, under cover of a violent sandstorm, overhears Raymond Burr, the local banker, heatedly arguing over shares of the stagecoach loot with his partner, Grandon Rhodes, and Lee Van Cleef, a cowboy accomplice.

Outstanding performances are turned in by the entire cast of this unusual picture, which is enhanced by the beautiful photography of Lionel Lindon, one of Hollywood's top cinematographers.

symphony and ballet performance in a crowded auditorium. The pollywogs around the edge of the Lake are unusually plump this year and the dragonflies unusually blue. Perhaps the scientists from the Biological Lab. are putting special vitamins in their diet this summer!

It is easy to forget how deep a blue the Highlands sky can be when one is surrounded by gray buildings, gray smog and the din of airway and highway traffic. There are no words to describe the special quality of the very air of Highlands. There is a lightness and a freshness to it that seems to be the embodiment of the very spirit of the Blue Ridge Mountains and the Highlands country in particular.
