I SPEAK FOR DEMOCRACY

By- Johnny Cleveland

Democracy is made up of a lot of little things such as going to movies, eating what we please, driving the kinds of cars we want and many more.

Democracy is in the home. A man is protected in his home and nobody can tell him what to do. He has the freedom to read the kind of books and magazines he likes, watch television or listen to the radio. He can wear the kind of clothes he wants and eat the food he likes. He can have people over for parties and can have meetings in his house as long as they are peaceable. The law cannot search his house without a warrant. A man's home is his castle, and he can do what he wants to do there.

FUNNY FACE

In one of the most provocative of casting switches, Audrey Hepburn, an Academy Award-winner and world-wide favorite as a dramatic actress, will make her screen bow as a song-and-dance star. Teamed with the dancing master of them all, Fred Astaire, elfin Audrey will be seen in the title role of "Funny Face," the most lavish and reputedly the most uniquely photographed and designed musical to come out of Paramount.
