THE BARRETTS ARE COMING

One of the world's great love stories Mrs. Alleen Fraser Hill is Chairman of will be brought to the screen of the Galax Theatre in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," John Gielgud and Gastarring Bill Travers

Based on the Rudolf Besier stage play in which Katharine Cornell scored one of her greatest successes, the M-G-M picture was filmed in England in CinemaScope and filled out and either left at the Library color under the direction of Sidney Franklin, the director who gave the screen such memorable pictures as "Mrs. Miniver" and "The Good Earth." It was produced by Sam Zimbalist.

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street" tells the story of two famous literary figures, Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning, whose love affair was forbidden by Elizabeth's tryannical father but who succeeded in achieving their happiness despite the determination of Edward Moulton-Barrett to separate them.

Jennifer Jones, in 1956 voted by the nation's moviegoers as the most popular act-Price. (This is necessary whether or not Many Splendored Thing" with the part of theentry is for sale, in order to provide Elizabeth Barrett, whose love for the poet insurance coverage. If not for sale, Robert Browning refused to be desired and the mark it "N.F.S.")

The latter role is played by Bill Travers, handsome British star who won himself Miss Grace Talley spent the past week- a legion of American fans as the result of his tole opposite Ava Gardner in "Bhowani Junction."
