"ON THE TRAIL"

By-Richard Harrison, Scoutmaster

Scouting in some small way helps every boy who has ever belonged to the Boy Scouts of America. Of course, every boy who becomes a registered scout does not become as enthused about it as some of the others. However, even by attending a few meetings some of the teachings are bound to stick with him for the rest of his life. (Con't on Page 5)

HIGHLANDS COMMUNITY THEATRE

(Notes From The Old School Hill.)

Tonight and Tomorrow: THE FOURPOSTER

A tender, hilarious, very human domestic comedy.

Highlands Community Theatre is fortunate to be able to offer this all-star professional play as its last production of the 1957 season. (Con't on Page 12)

BREVARD MUSIC CENTER

Capacity crowds are again expected to "follow the notes" to the Brevard Music Center as the twelfth annual Gala Festival series moves into its second weekend of concerts this Friday evening, August 16.

Famed pianist Leonard Pennario will make a guest appearance with the Gala Festival Orchestra, James Christian Pfohl conducting. (Con't on Page 15)

ANNUAL MUSICAL TO BE PRESENTED

The Colored people, of Highlands, will present their Annual Musical on Sunday evening, August 18, at 8 o'clock in the New School Auditorium. (Con't on Page 4)

BY POPULAR REQUEST

"I'll Cry Tomorrow," starring Susan Hayward and Richard Conte, will play at the Galax Theatre on August 21. (Con't on Page 2)
