COLLIN WILCOX IS BRIDE OF
WALTER BEAKEL

Collin Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilcox, of Knoxville, Tenn. and Highlands became the bride of Walter Beakel, son of Mr. Stanley C. Beakel, of Cleveland, Ohio, and the late Mrs. Christina Stevenson Beakel, Sunday, August 11 at 3:30 P.M. in the Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Robert DuPree officiated. Robert DuPree presented a program of wedding music.

Miss Jeremy Wilcox was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore an afternoon dress of dusty pink with horse-lace top, cape sleeves, and silk-organdy skirt. She carried a nosegay of pink asters.

The bride wore an off-white dress with high neck, cape sleeves, empire waist and cornet veil. She carried a nosegay of shasta daisies.

Mr. Jack Wilcox, father of the bride, served as best man.

Ushers were: Mr. Thomas FitzPatrick and Mr. Overton Chambers.

GARDEN TOURS WELL ATTENDED

The fourth annual Tour of Homes and Gardens, sponsored by the Highlands Garden Club, was well attended last Friday and Saturday. The beautiful weather added to the pleasure of garden lovers who came from neighboring towns and states, and many exclamations of surprise and delight were heard expressed. The Tours included the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Speyers; Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Morrow; Dr. and Mrs. C.E. Mitchell; Dr. and Mrs. Willard Parry; Mr. and Mrs. A.T. Carter; Gen and Mrs. A.E. Brown; Mr. and Mrs. L.M. Hirsig; Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Phillips, and the fabulous home of Mrs. W.T. Crawford.

Approximately one hundred people attended the Tour.

Refreshments were served at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. L.M. Hirsig and Mr. and Mrs. A.T. Carter. $200.00 was raised with this project and the proceeds will be used for civic beautification, primarily for school grounds.

SUCCESS

By-Mrs. Bass Hines Harkins

Success in the eyes of God
Alone is true success;
However a man has lived
He has failed unless
The days he gives back to God
Are beautiful in His sight,
Forming a temple with crystal
Panels, through which the light
Of Heaven comes streaming in ...
Witnessing His love -
Success on the earth below
Is weighed on scales above.
