"WILL SUCCESS SPOIL ROCK HUNTER ?"
PLAYS AT GALAX THEATRE AUG. 29-30

According to all reports the moviegoers of Highlands and vicinity will be treated to one of the finest comedies of the season - as well as one of the very latest releases Thursday and Friday.

When blonde Jayne Mansfield rocketed to stardom in the role of the Hollywood movie queen in the Broadway production of "WILL SUCCESS SPOIL ROCK HUNTER ?", it was inevitable that he should star in its film version.

SOME EARLY DAYS IN HIGHLANDS

By- Mrs. Gertrude Cobb Holt

The first winter I spent in Highlands, I attended school in a one-room school house. Mr. T.G. Harbison was my teacher, and he was assisted by Miss Olive White who taught the primary class.

This was in the winter of 1887-1888. Some of the other pupils besides me were Eva Cleaveland, May Henry, and I believe, Emma Jollay from Cullasaja. Then there was Elias and Renwick White, Harry Kelsey, Allison McKinney and several others.

The following is a portion of a letter written by Stephen Wallace to his sister, about their trip to Highlands.

My dear sister:

We have just returned from a delightful trip to Highlands, N.C., and you are always interested in our journeys here and there.
