"WILD IS THE WIND"

Hal Wallis' production for Paramount of "Wild Is The Wind," which returns the incomparable Anna Magnani, Academy Award winner for "The Rose Tattoo", to the American screen, will be shown June 22-23 at the Galax Theatre.

A film that has evoked a storm of critical and audience raves for the strength of its performances, the raw power of its story and the brilliance of its production and direction, the Vista-Vision tale of love and hate in the Nevada sheep country stars the fiery Miss Magnani, two-time Oscar winner Anthony Quinn and dynamic young Anthony Franciosa. Co-starred are lovely new find Dolores Hart and veteran character actor Joseph Calleia.

Produced by Hal Wallis, whose "The Rose Tatoo" brought Miss Magnani her Oscar, and directed by the renowned George Cukor, "Wild Is The Wind" promises to be of the same lusty, elemental quality as the memorable Tennessee Williams story. Dealing with people of primitive emotions and drawing them with a frankness and boldness not often found on the American screen, it ranges from taut drama to rough and earthy human comedy.

The story is of a marriage between a widower and the tempestuous sister of his deceased wife. Untamed even by the despair of discovering that her husband hides a guilty secret and that she exists in his mind only as her predecessor, she turns to a younger man and brings violence into their lives. The setting for the Arnold Schulman screenplay is the remote and isolated Nevada mountains, filmed in VistaVision.

Mrs. Henry Schoolfield, Sr., of Mullins, S.C. arrived here Tuesday to spend the summer at the Smith Estate on Satulah Mountain. Her son, Mr. William Schoolfield, accompanied her here and will return to Mullins this week.

Mrs. Keating Ascough of Greenville, Tennessee, returned to Highlands last week and will be here for the summer.
