GARDEN TOURS

The fifth annual Garden Tours, sponsored by the Highlands Garden Club, are scheduled for Friday, August 8th, and Saturday, August 9th. There are two tours: Tour A, on Friday and Saturday mornings; Tour B, on Friday and Saturday afternoons. Transportation will be furnished for all tours. Cars will leave from the Highlands Methodist Church for Tour A, from 10:00 to 10:30 A.M., and for Tour B, from 2:00 to 2:30 P.M. Tickets are $2.00 per tour, and may be obtained at any of the hotels or immediately before each tour at the Methodist Church.

The opening of many of Highlands finest homes and gardens for these tours is always a highlight of the summer season. An interesting variety is provided this

NEWS FROM CAMP HIGHLANDER

On June 18, 1958 Camp Highlander officially opened for the first time. The new boys arriving were picked up at the train station in Toccoa, Georgia, and a sight seeing trip on the way back to camp was arranged. Included were Tallulah Gorge, a picnic lunch at Stuckey's, a view of the wooden tressle used in the filming of the "Great Locomotive Chase" at Clayton, the waterfall at Dillard, the Blue Valley Vista, a look at Brush Mountain (the camp) from the highway as it rises to an elevation of 4,200 feet, and last but not least, a close view of the flag waving in the breeze on top of the look-out tower on top of the mountain. Following the motor trip to camp, the boys were taken on a tour of the camp which included the Recreation

ROTARY NEWS

At the Rotary meeting on Tuesday evening at Hotel Edwards Mr. Bill Caye was speaker and gave an interesting talk about the hospital fund raising drive for the next four weeks. He told of the necessity and advantages of having a hospital in Highlands.

There were approximately 62 present for the meeting, 47 of which were visiting Rotarians.
