ANNUAL TEA

The ANNUAL TEA, sponsored by the Episcopal Woman's Auxiliary, will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Green Warren, Country Club Estates, Friday, August 1st, 4 to 6 P.M. Do plan to attend this pleasant occasion, and bring your friends. Circle the date on your calendar.

ATTEND MEETING

Attending the 21st District meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star in Bryson City on Saturday evening were the Worthy Matron of Highlands Chapter, Mrs. Vernon Slattery, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harbison, Mrs. Eloise G. Potts and Mrs. Mary Burnette.

BAZAAR

The Hospital Bazaar, sponsored by the auxiliary group of the Highlands Community Hospital, will be held on Friday and Saturday, July 18-19, in the Cobb Building on Main Street. All proceeds will be used for the hospital and everyone is invited to attend the bazaar. Much work and planning have gone into preparing for this event. Include in your trip to town a visit to the Bazaar.

PLEASE NOTE

We are running each week in our newspaper a few items from issues published five or six years ago. This is a practice that many other newspapers follow.

We regret that some of our readers have read these items without reading the introductory headline and concluded that the item was a current one.

We plan to continue publishing such items and hope that our readers will enjoy reading again Galax News items of several years ago.

CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED SUNDAY, JULY 20

At the morning worship hour this Sunday the Highlands Methodist Church will be dedicated by Bishop Nolan B. Harmon and the dedicatory sermon will be preached by Bishop Costen J. Harrell of Decatur, Ga. Special music will be under the direction of Robert G. Ramsey, and Mrs. Robert Balfour, guest organist.

To the side of the main sanctuary there is a small chapel which has been named Smith-Tillett Chapel, in memory of Mrs. Kate Smith and her father, Dr. Wilbur Fiske Tillett. Mrs. Smith was born in Danville, Va. in 1899 and she passed away February 6, 1957 at Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville, Tenn. where she had been a patient for six months.

Mrs. Smith attended the Ward Belmont School for Girls and later graduated from Randolph Macon. She received her Master's Degree from the University of Wisconsin. After her marriage to Mr. J.H. Smith of Nashville, she spent her time between Florida, Highlands, and
