CAMP HIGHLANDER (Con't)
director prove very interesting. Stories about fishing, hunting, camping, and the war are some of the topics covered during this time.

The social side of camp life is taken care of also. Dances with Merre Woode and Adahi Girls' Camps have proved very interesting, and the older boys have been to the Mountain City and Highlands Square Dances.

All of the boys are very enthusiastic about all of the camp activities and very little, if any, home sickness has been noted. The director and staff are very pleased that the opening year at Camp Highlander has been so successful.

The staff includes: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wax, Owners and Director, Highlands, N.C.; Thomas H. McCain, Assistant, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Mrs. Thomas H. McCain, Secretar, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Mrs. Mary Jane Rupp, Dietitian, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Miss Rosalie Nutter, Registered Nurse, West Virginia; Mr. Paul Bergeron,

"DEERSLAYER"

"The Deerslayer," Twentieth Century-Fox's CinemaScope, DeLuxe Color epic of the early American frontier will play at the Galax Theatre Saturday, August 2.

The classic story of the struggle between early frontiersman and the deadly Huron and Delaware Indians stars Lex Barker, Rita Moreno, Forrest Tucker, Cathy O'Donnell, Jay C. Flippen and Carlos Rivas, who played opposite Miss Moreno in "The King and I."

"The Deerslayer," written by America's first native writer, James Fenimore Cooper, deals with that period of American history when our frontiers extended only as far as the Susquehanna River Valley in New York State.
