ORDER OF EASTER STAR

Mrs. William N. Slattery, Worthy Matron of Highlands Chapter of the Eastern Star, made the following announcements at the regular meeting of the Chapter on Monday night: The Worthy Grand Matron of North Carolina will make her visit at Oce Chapter in Dillsboro, Monday evening August 4th, at 8 o'clock; and the District School of Instruction will be held at Nequossi Chapter in Franklin on August 6th. All members are invited to attend either one or both of these meetings.

Regular meetings of Highlands Chapter are on the 2nd and 4th Mondays at 8 o'clock.

HIGHLANDS MINERAL SOCIETY

A change of plans for the Mineral Society trip on last Sunday resulted in enjoyable and profitable prospecting at Laurel Creek. This trip yielded to members of the group specimens of apatite, serpentine, asbestos, and interesting forms of corundum, though no crystals of the latter, since these have never been found at Laurel Creek.

The next monthly meeting of the Society will be held in the library of the new laboratory of Highlands Biological Station. At this time Mr. Lewis Dendy will display his collection of stones and minerals and talk about the areas from which they were collected. All members of the Highlands Mineral Society are invited to attend. Those interested in becoming members may get in touch with Miss Blanche Davenport, president, telephone no. 4860, or with Dr. Thelma Howell, secretary-treasurer.

Make your plans to attend the Eastern Federation Gem and Mineral Show in Asheville on August 7, 8, and 9, when fabulous collections will be on display in the City Auditorium. This will be one of the finest displays to be seen in this part of the country, and will include not only North Carolina gems and minerals, but also outstanding collections from the entire East.

MUSIC FESTIVAL NEWS

About 50 interested citizens of Highlands attended the organizational meeting of the Highlands Music Festival at the home of Mrs. Murdock Equen on Monday afternoon. The following officers were: President, Mrs. Murdock Equen; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. Tudor Hall, Dr. Koeppe-Baker; Mrs. Harold Cooledge, and Mr. Robert Balfour, Jr.; Secretary, Mrs. Lyda Harcombe; and Treasurer, Mr. Hal Dumas.

Highlands is indeed fortunate in being able to present the Brevard Music Center Orchestra in a series of 3 concerts, Monday, August 11, Tuesday, August 12 at 8 p.m. with a children's concert Tuesday, August 12, at 2:30 p.m. in the Highlands School Auditorium. Parents take note of this splendid opportunity for your children to hear the finest in music. Dr. Pfohl and the Brevard Music Center have become nationally known. The children's concert is open to adults-tickets are $1.00 and for children 50¢-and will be delightfully informative for all ages. Season tickets are available for $5.00 each and may be secured by calling Mrs. Equen at 2830 or Mrs. Pearl Hemphill at 4820. Tickets will also be on sale at several business places and in front of the post office.

Proceeds will go to the Highlands Community Hospital. It is planned to make this festival an annual event in
