SILVER TEA

A very delightful and enjoyable affair of the past week was the Silver Tea given by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church. The tea was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Green Warren, Country Club Estates.

The lovely and spacious home of Dr. and Mrs. Green Warren was decorated with many beautiful floral arrangements. A centerpiece of gardenias ornamented the dining room table; the serving table on an enclosed porch was centered with white garden flowers; and there were many beautiful floral arrangements of yellow, pink, and white glads and dahlies.

The tea, which was attended by a large crowd, was most successful. The guests were greeted by Mrs. Warren, Mrs. James H. Howe, and Mrs. William Caye.

Those serving refreshments were Mrs. Lester Dawley, Mrs. Frank Wrightman, Mrs. Tudor N. Hall, and Mrs. Herbert Koepp-Baker. Also helping with the Tea were Mrs. H.D. Porterfield and Miss Kate Jungerman. Miss Rebecca Nall, president of the Woman's Auxiliary, expresses her thanks to everyone for the support of the Tea.

Mr. Moberly will be joined in about three weeks by his wife and daughter. Mrs. Moberly is a registered nurse and will probably join the staff of the Highlands Community Hospital.

Coming attraction---another Broadway star to appear in our last production by the Highlands Community Theatre, Speaking of Murder! Miss Elizabeth Wilson, who has appeared in such New York plays as The Desk Set, Picnic, and Tunnel of Love, as well as the movie versions of these plays, and numerous television productions, is coming to play the leading lady, Annabelle, in this tense, suspense drama which opens on August 20th.

Reserve this night for your special house guests because it will be the highlight of the summer season--the kind of entertainment you'd pay $12.50 for in New York. Watch this newspaper for further details.
