LIONS MEETING

On Thursday evening, August 21, the Highlands Lions Club had their regular meeting at Hotel Edwards.

The President, Mr. Gordon Talley, presided, and the International Counselor for this district, gave a very interesting talk.

The next meeting of the local Lions Club will be on Thursday evening, Sept. 4, at Hotel Edwards. All visiting Lions are invited to attend.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday night, August 17, Mr. C.E. Mitchell and Mr. C.J. Anderson reminisced about the past years' happenings at the latter's home and celebrated the 25th anniversary of Mr. Mitchell being in Highlands. When he first came here he worked as a druggist for Mr. Anderson who had been here since 1924.

Both originally came from Westminster, S.C.

ROTARY NEWS

Georgia Night was observed at Rotary Tuesday evening at Hotel Edwards when many Georgia Crackers were present. Among the interesting talks made by Bob Balfour, George Woodruff, and others were "Industrial Growth of Georgia," "Students of foreign Countries in Ga. sponsored by Rotary," and "Timber in Georgia." About 40 visitors were present.
