YOUNG MAN DROWNS

The sympathy of this entire community went out this week to the Jimmy Crawford family who lost their oldest son last Sunday when he drowned in Cliffside Lake. Charles Newton Crawford, 18, was drowned when he got into deep water in the lake where he was swimming with his younger brother. His father, James Henry Crawford, Sr., went to his aid but could not pull him to shore.

Charles was a member of the First Baptist Church, Highlands, where he was secretary of the young boys' Sunday

MUSIC FESTIVAL MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Highlands Music Festival Association Monday, July 20, at 2:30 P.M. at the home of Mrs. Murdock Equen, president, in the Country Club Estates. At this time plans will be perfected for the 2nd Annual Highlands Music Festival which will be held this year August 10 and 11 and August 24 and 25 in the Highlands School Auditorium. The Association will again present The Brevard Music Center Orchestra, James Christian Pfohl, con-

NOTES FROM OLD SCHOOL HILL

Last night marked the opening of "Bell, Book and Candle" at the Highlands Community Theatre. The cast, headed by sparkling Collin Wilcox and including Richard Melvin, Edna Faxon, Ellison Magruder and Nick Koepp-Baker turned in a first class performance.

The play concerns modern day witchcraft in New York and combines just the right amount of suspense and comedy to delight any audience.

Friday night's performance beginning at 8:30 is for the benefit of the Highlands Community Hospital so if you

THE GREEN ENCHANTRESS

Who walks with the Green Enchantress,
let him beware--

If ever a rhododendron bloom tangle in his hair...

Who is the Green Enchantress and where does she dwell? You who walk the woods of Highlands will come to know. You will breathe of her spirit--for she is a spirit--in the fragrance of the forest, in the sunlight and shadow blowing lightly through her hair, in pungent galaxglens and in the mystic mountain rains. You will find her grace as that of a moun-
