"ONIONHEAD"

Andy Griffith, the sensational star of "No Time For Sergeants," comes to the Galax Theatre on Monday, July 27, in Warner Bros. "Onionhead," a happy combination of comedy and drama with a part civilian, part Coast Guard background.

Starring with Griffith in the laugh-packed picture are Felicia Farr, Walter Matthau, Erin O'Brien and Joe Mantell.

The story begins in an Oklahoma college town. Andy Griffith inexpertly attempts to be a Lothario with the girls, but when he strikes out with his number one girl friend, Erin O'Brien, he decides it's time to join the service.

What "Mister Roberts" did for the Navy, and "No Time For Sergeants" did for the Air Force, "Onionhead" does for the Coast Guard as Griffith divides his attentions and his talents between ship and shore.

Broadway actor Walter Matthau, already established as a versatile film personality, plays the rough talking ship's cook.

Nightclub comedian Joey Bishop is seen as the rugged mess cook in "Onionhead."
