"WHERE EVERYONE MEETS"

"QUALITY"

A LITTLE TOWN

I like to live in a little town,
Where the trees meet across the street
Where you wave your hand and say hello
To everyone you meet.

I like to stand for a moment
Outside the grocery store
And listen to the friendly gossip of
The folks that live next door.

For life is interwoven
With the friends we learn to know
And we hear their joys and sorrows,
As we daily come and go--

So I like to live in a little town,
I care no more to roam,
For every house in a little town
Is more than house, it's home.

CONDUCTOR'S NOTES

by JAMES CHRISTIAN PFOHL

Mr. Harry Berv, instructor of French Horn at the Conservatory of Dramatic Art and Music in Montreal, Canada, was at the Brevard Music Center for a short visit. Mr. Berv was here to "take part in a clinic for brass instruments, teach them the basic fundamentals and also notes on instrument playing and symphonic organizations throughout the country." Mr. Berv, at the age of 15 was with the Philadelphia Orchestra. Six years later he played with Toscanini and the NBC Symphony Orchestra.

"All music and no play" is not a description of the Transylvania Music Camp. The camp had a recreation staff of three, but found that this was an inadequate number if there was to be planned recreation for the 210 campers. Bill Gilgo, a Citadel cadet and football player has joined the staff as the recreation assistant to Coach John Guiton. Coach Guiton was Bill's freshman football coach at The Citadel.

An auto-tag count was taken at Sunday's concert and the following 16 states were represented: Alabama, Florida, Virginia, Indiana, Mississippi, Illinois, Tennessee, Georgia, New York, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Ohio, Kansas and North and South Carolina.

Tape recordings made of concerts and in special recording sessions are being carried on programs of five North Carolina radio stations. WBT of Charlotte has a Thursday night program, and WMIT, also of Charlotte, has a Saturday night program. WFNX of Statesville, WMDE of Greensboro and WPNF of Brevard, have these special programs on Sunday night.

The dates for next years camp season have just been announced. The Transylvania Music Camp will open June 24th until Aug. 7th. The Brevard Music Festival begins on the 8th of August and will end on the 28th of that month.
