approximately $25,000 less than the amount last year. This is due to the economy drive in Washington of which the District has no control.

This week two men of the Highland District are at the Wayah Depot of the Wayah District. They are working on a wild-life project at the Wayah Depot. Also this week, engineers from the Atlanta office in charge of recreation are working on the location for the latrine at Cliffside and the plans should be complete soon.

"SAY ONE FOR ME"

When producer-director Frank Tashlin, one of Hollywood's masters of comedy, was given the production go-ahead signal to make Twentieth-Century-Fox's "Say One For Me," which plays Thursday and Friday, August 6-7 at the Galax Theatre, he had one cast in mind: Bing Crosby, Debbie Reynolds and Robert Wagner.

In this picture Crosby returns to the screen in a role that has made his stardom in the motion picture industry a lasting tribute. Singing songs in his own carefree manner and delivering comedy lines as only he can.

Debbie Reynolds, who plays the college-educated showgirl in the lavish production, has been a consistent box-office favorite since she began her motion picture career.

Playing a much different role than any before Robert Wagner lives up to the expectations of his associates who've seen him "grow-up" the twentieth lot. As a nightclub entertainer-producer who takes an immediate liking to Debbie, Wagner exhibits a heretofore unknown quality, the ability to handle a song and dance man role with the best in Hollywood. A role sure to please his crops of admirers.
