MUSIC FESTIVAL (Con't)

Joan Fields, violinist, will hold the spotlight Tuesday, August 11.

On August 24 the festival will present Victor Stern and his viola in concert with the orchestra. The orchestra is composed of faculty, staff and advanced campers of the Transylvania Music Camp in Brevard, N.C.

A special concert for young people is scheduled for Tuesday, August 25, at 2:30 p.m.

Grant Johannesens, famed young pianist, will close the festival with a concert Tuesday, August 25, at 8:15 p.m.

All concerts will be held in the Highlands School Auditorium at 8:15 unless another time is mentioned.

Bright yellow music note posters lead the way to the school, from all directions in Highlands.

"KINGS GO FORTH"

A poignant love story of two American soldiers for an American girl who lives a lonely life with her widowed mother on the French Riviera during the last days of World War II, is the theme of the Frank Ross production, "Kings Go Forth," which will play Wednesday, August 12, at the Galax Theatre through United Artists release.

Frank Sinatra, Tony Curtis and Natalie Wood are co-starred in "Kings Go Forth," and the supporting cast is headed by Leora Dana, Karl Swenson, Anne Codee and Jackie Berthe. The picture was produced by Frank Ross and directed by Delmer Dvaes.

In "Kings Go Forth" Tony Curtis again plays what he calls a "for-real" role, as a draft-dodging, playboy soldier who trifles with the affections of a beautiful girl who has fallen in love with him.

Natalie Wood, has been Hollywood's epitome of the teen-ager of the Beat Generation, graduates to a new kind of role in "Kings Go Forth." As Monique, the American-French girl living in France, she essays her first mature role.

"Kings Go Forth" was filmed in part on location in what has been termed "the most beautiful spot in the whole world" --the fabulous Cote D'Azur of France.
