GARDEN TOURS ARE

THIS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Garden Tours are this Friday and Saturday, August 7th and 8th. For Tour A cars will leave the Methodist Church from 10:00 to 10:30 both mornings and for Tour B from 2:00 to 2:30 both afternoon.

Going on the tours is a delightful way to see your friends, meet your friends and to make new friends...for there is a community of spirit among garden lovers. It is also an especially good way of getting ideas to incorporate into your own home. All in all it is a mighty pleasant way of spending a morning and an afternoon, and oh very incidentally of seeing homes that one would never see otherwise. On Tour A you will visit the following homes: Mr. and Mrs. O.W. McConnell, Cashiers Road; Mrs. Parish Watson, Wild Cat Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. Overton Chambers, Buck Creek Road; Mr. Watson Barratt, Satulah Mountain.

On Tour B you will visit the following homes: Mr. J. Blanc Monroe, Horse Cove Road; Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Mitchell; Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Phillips, sr., Sequoyah Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Julian Speyers, Broadview Acres.

Will Garden Tour drivers for the A tour please report to the Methodist Church by 9:30 A.M. and drivers for B tour by 1:30 P.M.

AN ORIENTAL TOUR

Mr. D.C. Dawkins of Jacksonville, Florida and Highlands, N.C. will give a talk on his recent tour of Hawaii, Korea, and the Philipines in the Highlands Methodist Church on Sunday, August 9, at 8:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to hear this talk and see the pictures taken while on this trip.

CUB SCOUT NEWS

Cub Scout Pack 207 spent an enjoyable day at beautiful Black Rock Mountain State Park in Georgia Saturday, August 1. They had as their guest Cub Scout David Bursey of West Palm Beach, Fla. who says "they were a swell bunch of boys." Starting around 11 o'clock a question often heard was "when do we eat?" and sandwiches were hastily prepared for lunch, topped by frosted gingerbread cupcakes which were baked by Mrs. Bob Langdon, acting Den Mother.

The play ground area on the Mountain top was especially interesting for the Cubs indicating such an attraction is needed in Highlands. The hike up to Tennessee Rock left the Cub Master breathless and far behind, the boys setting a new record for speed in the climb to the top.

This Saturday, August 8, will be a regular meeting at the Old School Building and new boys are urged to join.
