NOTES FROM OLD SCHOOL HILL

On Friday, August 7th, the Highlands Community Theatre will present the second performance of Bad Seed by Maxwell Anderson, a play that thrilled and chilled New York audiences a few years ago.

Although the plot centers around a little girl, it is definitely not a child's play but a serious drama of mounting suspense.

The cast includes Mary Raoul, Virginia Allen, Katherine Mays, Richard Melvin, Charles Wick, James H. Howe, Fred Allen, Johnny Adams, Jim Hines, Kathy Reynolds, Katie Bartel and Kevin Fitz Patrick.

In a few weeks a treat of an entirely different nature will be offered. Period costumes, music, dancing, and much laughter will greet you in Molieres, Would Be Gentleman. Watch for the dates. This is something really different.

DAVIDSONS' VISIT HERE

Rev. and Mrs. Jack B. Davidson and children, Ann and Jackie have returned to their home in Marion, South Carolina after a ten days stay in Highlands. While here the family "camped out" at Van Hook Glade.

Mrs. Davidson and Ann spent a weekend in Montreat where they enjoyed a "China Supper" at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Nelson Bell. The guest list consisted of those who have been missionaries to China, or missionaries children and those home on furlough. There were 85 present at the supper. Mrs. Davidson enjoyed seeing many friends, among whom was Mrs. Billy Graham, wife of the famous evangelist. Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Davidson grew up together in China and were students together at Wheaton College in Illinois.

MR. ROBERTSON'S CONDITION IMPROVED

The many friends of Mr. Douglas Robertson of Highlands and Atlanta, will be glad to know that as of Wednesday morning his condition was much improved. He is a patient at Piedmont Hospital in Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. Robertson is a summer resident of Highlands and is a Past Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Highlands Community Hospital.
