"ME AND THE COLONEL"
 In Columbia Pictures' forth-coming "Me and the Colonel", comedian Danny Kaye, the new Danny Kaye, that is reportedly, makes a sweeping and superb departure from his familiar character as a screen clown to embrace a role that has a sense of humor and a sense of humanity. The new Kaye vehicle, hailed by advance critics as hilarious and as heartwarming as anything ever brought to the screen also stars international favorite Curt Jurgens, and lovely French actress Nicole Maurey. It will play Thursday, August 13, at the Galax Theatre.

Kaye plays a refugee with a tremendous instinct for survival. After escaping the Nazi invasion of Poland, he finds his life once more jeopardized, in Paris, as the onrushing Panzer divisions threaten the city.
