PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS

To-night (Thursday) at 7:30 at the Manse there will be a meeting of the Christian Education Committee. All Sunday School teachers are asked to attend. The purpose of the meeting is to review and evaluate some of the changes which have been put into effect and work on other plans which might be helpful.

The Pioneer Fellowship group enjoyed a supper at the Manse on Wednesday evening. Following the supper a good time was had by all in the recreation period. A devotional period closed the meeting.

DOUGLAS M. ROBERTSON DIES

Douglas M. Robertson, 55, a senior vice president of the Trust Company of Georgia and a former director of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, died Monday in a private hospital in Atlanta.

Mr. Robertson had been a summer resident of Highlands for a number of years and had been in Highlands this summer. He was a former Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Highlands Community Hospital and was a member of the Highlands Country Club.

The plaque had been placed under his picture at Highlands Community Hospital on Saturday of last week only two days before his death. Mr. Robertson had done much for the hospital. In lieu of flowers the family requested that gifts be made to the Highlands Community Hospital which will go into the Douglas Robertson Memorial Fund.

Mr. Robertson served on the Atlanta advisory board of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, the Capital City Club, the Piedmont Driving Club, the Nine O'Clocks, American Cotton Manufactures and the Southern Assn. of Science and Industry.

He was a past president of the Atlanta Clearing House and a former treasurer of the Atlanta Traffic and Safety Council.

Funeral services were held at 3 p.m., Tuesday at Spring Hill with Dr. Harry Fifield officiating. Burial was in the Westview Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, the former Maybeth Carnes; a step-daughter, Mrs. Dabbey H. Craighill, Jr., Atlanta; his mother; and a brother; and a half-sister.
