TEA WELL ATTENDED

A most enjoyable affair of last week was the Annual Episcopal Tea given by the Women of the Episcopal Church last Thursday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. A.T. Carter on Flat Mountain. It was exceptionally well attended by a large number of people, some of whom came from out-of-town to attend the Tea.

The house was decorated throughout with lovely arrangements of yellow and white gladiolas and dahlias. The flowers were arranged by Mrs. Polly Clark and Mrs. C.J. Stokes and were the topic of much discussion during and after the Tea. The tea table held an unusually beautiful arrangement of galax leaves and white delphinium.

Mrs. Margaret Hall and Mrs. Ray Schultheis served the guests, and Mrs. William Caye and Mrs. James Howe were co-chairmen for the event.

The amount received at the Tea was approximately $225.00 and will go to the Episcopal Church.

NOTES FROM OLD SCHOOL HILL

Wigs are slipping, the light fantastic is being tripped, paint brushes are slapping, and rehearsals are taking place twice daily in preparation for "THE WOULD BE GENTLEMAN", next on the boards at the Highlands Community Theatre.

Work on the set has been slowed a bit by the re-arrangement of the seats to afford better vision in all sections of the theatre. They are now in wide semi-circles with wide aisles between, making it much easier to move between the rows, and staggered so that no one's head is an obstacle.

The work crew also spent many hours rigging lights, curtains, and hanging space for the Highlands Art Show, for the benefit of the Hudson Library.

Due to all the extra-curricular activity, a few more willing hands with paint brush or hammer would be greatly appreciated to help us "Get the show on the road", so, if you have an hour or two to spare, come to the Theatre on the Hill. You will be most welcome.

THE WOULD BE GENTLEMAN has a large cast and you should see many familiar faces on the stage. The cast is as follows: Mr. Jourdain....Jim Hines; Mrs. Jourdain....Nancy Ormand; Lucile, their daughter....Kathy Reynolds; Nicole, their maid....Becky Wite Johnston; Cleonte.... Nick Koepp-Baker; Covielle, valet to Cleonte....Richard Melvin; Dorante, a nobleman....Jim Johnston; Dorimene, a lady....Henriette Raoul; Music Master.... Charles Wick; Musician....Edward Fernow; Dancing Master....James Howe; Fencing Master....Kevin Fitz Patrick; Philosopher....William Raoul; Master Tailor.... Richard Melvin; Tailor's apprentices.... Scott Clark, Scott Reynolds, Bill Melvin; Ballerina....Neil Norrryce; Corps de Ballet....Virginia Allen, Barbara Harkins, Jill Bailey. all of whom double as sing-
