

NOTES FROM HILL CON'T

marry the gal. The constant realization of what he might have been rankles to the extent of driving him into occasional binges and the arms of Alcoholics Anonymous.

To make ends meet, his frowsy but loving wife takes in a boarder, a girl student from a midwestern college. When hubby sees her playing fast and loose with a dumb athlete, forgetting a trustful fiance, he takes to the bottle again. But the twist is that the gal, after her fling, marries the right guy.

So the chiropractor, after a seige in a hospital alcohol ward, comes repentantly back home to resume his hapless life with the only thing he has left to turn to--the ineffectual wife who had knocked all the ambition out of him.

The wife, who has been living in the past, who has been calling to Little Sheba, a lost puppy, finally decides to begin living in the present and future.

TRIP TO WINSTON-SALEM

The editor of THE GALAX NEWS, Mrs. James Norman, with her husband and daughter, visited Mr. Norman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Norman in Winston-Salem this past week-end. Their trip was "enhanced" by two blow-outs which made it indecisive whether they would get back or not. However, despite these odds they returned safely home Sunday.

RUMMAGE SALE

A Rummage Sale will be sponsored by the WSCS in Highlands on July 15. Your contribution of any salable article, clothes, furniture, books, etc., will be appreciated. Please help us make this a successful event. Contact Mrs. Richard Harrison, chairman, if further information is needed.

MAPS AT CAROLINA MOUNTAIN SHOP

The Carolina Mountain Shop in Cashiers, N. C. has an interesting stock of 150 different geological survey maps of all areas of Western North Carolina, including Highlands.

The maps give elevations and locations of waterfalls and trails to aid in planning trips or hikes in the mountains.

Houses are represented by black dots and property is marked so that a look at these maps can settle any arguments or questions concerning property.

These maps are featured at the Carolina Mountain Shop and are of interest to anyone traveling in the mountains or for residents.
