PYF MEETING

Last Sunday night the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship met for the second summer session of meetings. It was well attended by local and summer visitors. A very lively and interesting discussion on various topics was led by Rev. McCall and Mr. Jay McConnell contributed several ideas. The whole group viewed their opinions on the topics listed under "The Meaning of Life."

Plans for further meetings were made and a refreshment committee was selected. Another group was selected for the purpose of planning outings for the group. Mr. McCall plans to order more movies of interest to be shown at the meetings.

The weekly meetings are held at the Presbyterian Church at 7:00 p. m. and all local and visiting young people are cordially invited to attend.

BALL GAME

Last Sunday on the local baseball diamond the Highlands All Stars were defeated, 14-6, by the Chicopee Mills team from Walhalla, South Carolina.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Jimmy Calloway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Calloway, has been awarded a scholarship at North Carolina State College in the field of Chemical Engineering. He will study Pulp and Paper Technology.

The scholarship is worth $500.00 a year for the four year college curriculum. Jimmy was valedictorian of this year's graduating class at Highlands High School.

LIONS CLUB NEWS

The annual Ladies Night of the Highlands Lions Club was held at the last meeting, Thursday, June 16th.

The Club meets on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month. Installation of officers will be the business of the next meeting, Thursday, July 7th.

COBBS RETURN TO HIGHLANDS

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Cobb have returned to their home here on Satulah after spending over three years in Richmond, Virginia.

Mr. Cobb worked with his brother in real estate in Richmond. They worked in project development--building and selling houses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobb, former residents of Highlands, returned Sunday and plan to make their home here again.

BYER'S STYLE CENTER

At the Byer's Center this summer, the 14th season in Highlands, Miss Betty Ruth Byers will be working with her mother. Miss Byers is a rising senior at Hanna High School in Anderson, South Carolina.

During the month of August, Mr. Will Sullivan of Anderson will be assisting in the Center. Mr. J. P. Byers will also be working during most of the month in the shop.
