MISS HARRIS PASSES

Word has been received here of the death of Miss Rebecca Harris, 90, in a nursing home in Hendersonville, N. C. on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Miss Harris had resided in Highlands for about 50 years.

There are no immediate survivors.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 3:00 p.m. in the Episcopal Church.

Thomas Shepherd Funeral Home, Hendersonville, is in charge of arrangements.

NEAR COLLISION

Tuesday, about 11:00 a.m. a 1959 Oldsmobile station wagon decided to leave its parking space in front of The Highlands Gem Shop. Slipping out, it headed down the hill at full speed toward oncoming traffic and a collision seemed inevitable. Then it swerved sharply and crossed the sidewalk hitting another car and ramming into a small building.

The car belonged to Mrs. R. B. Hare, of Lynchburg, Virginia. Her two-year-old son was in the car when it made its decision to move. There was no serious damage and the car was driven away by the owner after it was pulled from its chosen parking place.

MRS. CLAUDE CALLOWAY
CRITICALLY ILL

Mrs. Claude (Marie) Calloway is in the Highlands Community Hospital in an extremely critical condition.

Monday between 9:30 and 10:00, Mrs. Calloway received a phone call from a person whom she believed to be her mother, saying, "Help, Help, Marie!" She called her mother, Mrs. Dock Dalton, but didn't receive an answer because Mrs. Dalton was not in hearing distance of the phone. Believing something had happened to her mother, Mrs. Calloway started running to Mrs. Dalton's about a mile away.

When Mrs. Dalton approached the house she heard a groan and saw the kitchen door open. Entering, she saw Mrs. Calloway crawling out of the bedroom. She had blacked out before reaching the house and had crawled a considerable distance to get there.

Mrs. Calloway was rushed to the hospital where she remains in a critical condition.

The telephone lines in the vicinity have been checked to see if there was anyone in distress but nothing has been discovered in relation to the call.
