POLLYANNA CON'T

"Raintree County" and "Some Came Running," shared with Orry Kelly and Irene Sharaff the Best Color Costume Academy Award for "An American in Paris."

"Pollyanna," based on the novel by Eleanor H. Porter, is the American debut for fourteen year old, British born Hayley Mills, daughter of actor John Mills. Hayley was chosen by Mr. Disney after her sensational performance in a British film "Tiger Bay" for which she received rave notices. According to "Pollyanna" director David Swift, Hayley "is one of the most accomplished actresses I have ever seen. She can reach any height, and probably will."

"THE BRIDGES AT TOKO-RI"

The intensely exciting and suspenseful part played by our Navy jet fliers in the Korean War so thrillingly dramatized in Paramount's great Technicolor hit, "The Bridges at Toko-ri," will once again be available to film-goers when it is shown Friday, July 29, at the Galax Theatre. Starring William Holden, Grace Kelly, Fredric March and Mickey Rooney, the Perlberg-Seaton production was filmed on location in Tokyo and off the Korean coast aboard our massive aircraft carriers, with the cooperation of the Navy, and will be remembered by fans as one of the great thrill-films of all time.

In addition to the explosive action, it tells the personal story of the relationship of the Fleet Admiral (Fredric March) to his men, particularly to flying lieutenant William Holden, whose family has just arrived in Tokyo from the States. It is Holden's duty to fly a mission regarded as the most dangerous of the entire campaign.
