research from America and abroad. The cost of belonging is so small, and benefits so great, from lectures, pictures, nature study, field trips, etc., that we heartily suggest joining, or a visit to the station to meet Doctor Howell and browse around.

And we think our Community Theatre, the people behind it, and cast varying with each play, directed by talented and personable Fred Allen are out of this world! After seeing the next play THE HASTY HEART on August 5th and 6th you will not want to miss another performance. Admission is only $1.50 for the equivalent and thrill of enjoying a smash Broadway hit!

The town is also proud of its Hudson Public Library. You are always welcome there during visiting hours.

All of our Holy Churches, where we can learn how to be closer to God, deserve to be filled to overflowing at every service. Please attend and support the church of your choice regularly.

STELLAR CAST OFFERS SECOND PLAY

A fine cast led by Fontaine Flowers and Richard Melvin will present the Highlands Community Theatre's second major production of the season, John Patrick's THE HASTY HEART, opening at the playhouse on Friday evening, August 5th at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. Harrison Raoul, the Box Office Manager, has announced that tickets go on sale beginning Monday, August 1st at the Post Office. Patrons of the Theatre may reserve their season tickets at anytime by telephoning the theatre office-4870.

THE HASTY HEART is by the author of TEAHOUSE OF THE AUGUST MOON and deals with soldiers in a convalescent ward of a temporary British General Hospital in the Southeast Asia Command, during World War II. It tells the story of how a hard-hearted Scotchman gets his first kilt.

Bill Raoul, Clyde Bolt, Richard Melvin, Jim Hines and Fred Allen play the soldiers in the ward recovering from wounds suffered in the Battle of Burma. Miss Flowers portrays the part of Sister Margaret, their ward nurse and friend. Jack Wilcox is the commanding officer of the hospital and a top-notch army surgeon and Earle Young plays the part of the ward orderly.

This moving comedy-drama will be pre-
