RED SHOES ON STAGE THIS WEEK

THE RED SHOES, a play by Robin Short, based on the memorable Hans Christian Anderson story of the same name, is being presented by the Highlands Community Theatre in two performances this week at the playhouse. A matinee performance Thursday, August 11th at 3 p.m., and a single evening performance, Friday, August 12th at 8 p.m. Jeremy W. Allen directs the talented group of youngsters who form the company of actors and dancers. Barbara Harkins is choreographer for the group, and costumes are under the expert supervision of Mrs. Edna Faxon and Mrs. Cy Stannard. Mrs. Harrison Raoul is property mistress, and Miss Fontaine Flowers is house manager for this production, the third for the Highlands actors.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM and THE TRUE CHURCH

By - G. Dan McCall, Pastor

First Presbyterian Church

Some of our Christian Missionaries, serving in various parts of the world, tell us that one of the handicaps under which they labor is the divisiveness within the Christian Church. They refer to the competition and even belligerence which sometimes occurs between various Christian denominations. It is very difficult, say the Missionaries, to convince the peoples of the world of the unity of the Body of Christ when they see different groups, all calling themselves Christians, accusing and trying to damage each
