ANNUAL SILVER TEA

The Annual Silver Tea, sponsored by the Episcopal Women of the Church of the Incarnation will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Koeppe-Baker on August the 25th from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. Both men and women find this Annual Tea a very pleasant occasion. It is one of the outstandingly important events of the season here. Do plan to attend this Tea at the lovely Koeppe-Baker home which has one of the most beautiful views in the area.

The income from the Tea goes toward the support of a large number of social service projects which the women of the Church carry on each year.

Next week's paper will publish a brief description of the view, including names of mountains seen from the Koeppe-Baker home on Buck Creek Road.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

GALAX THEATRE PASSES WILL NOT BE GOOD FOR ADMISSION TO "POLLYANNA."

BENEFIT BRIDGE

On Monday, August 29, bridge players will gather at Lee's Inn for an evening of duplicate or straight bridge, play to begin at 8. So gather your friends together and make up your tables for duplicate or just straight bridge.

For reservations, by table or just by individuals, please telephone 3452, Colonel James Howe or 4820, Mrs. Pearl Hemphill, who is in charge of arrangements.

Each player will be asked to make a donation of $2 to the Hudson Library. In return you will have a gay and exhilarating evening in delightful surroundings, plus the knowledge that your $2 is going where it is greatly needed. There is also the possibility that if luck and science are with you that you may end up with a prize.
