RUMMAGE SALE

There will be a rummage sale in the Methodist Church basement Friday, July 7 from 9:00 to 1:00.

Left overs from last week's sale will be greatly reduced for quick sale this week and many other clothes and articles have been added to the stock on hand. New donations for the sale will be welcomed by the sponsors of the sale, the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church.

DEATH--'TOM' CALLOWAY

Services were held yesterday, July 5th, at the Buck Creek Baptist Church for James 'Tom' Calloway of Highlands who died Monday morning at 8:00 in his home following a short illness. Rev. Harold Cabe and Rev. Wiley McCall officiated at the 11:00 services Wednesday.

Mr. Calloway, a life-long resident of Macon County, is survived by the widow, 2 sons, 2 daughters, 2 brothers, one sister, 12 grandchildren, and 26 great grandchildren.

Leon, Morris, C. L. and N.C. Calloway and Frank and Sam Houston were pall bearers and burial was in the church cemetery at Buck Creek.

BENEFIT BRIDGE

Do you enjoy superb food, cards and gay and stimulating companionship? You do, good, for it was with you in mind that the Benefit Bridge and Buffet Dinner was planned. Each is an event unto itself for you can come to dinner and not stay for cards, or you can come for cards without first coming to dinner. It is hoped though that you will do both as together they will make a wonderful evening. The dinner and bridge will be at Lee's Inn and will be on Thursday, July 13 for the benefit of the Hudson Library. The Inn will serve their famous buffet dinner at 6:15. Dick Lee, the genial host, and EASTERN STAR BAKE SALE, Saturday, July 8, starting at 10:00 at the Tar Heel.

Why is the moon so fascinating? Why does it hold spellbinding power over the beholder? After all, it's just a yellow orb (with dark filigree patterns scattered over it) floating in the depths of the sky. Some people say it's made of green cheese, but I rather doubt that. Someday I'll take a week-end trip up there and find out for sure.

Anyway, the moon, at least and especially when it's in the full quarter, does hypnotize one. Last night I was watching
