BARRATT COMMENTS ON THEATRE

Mr. Watson Barratt, one of America's leading designers and a part-time summer resident of Highlands since 1917, is here for the remainder of July, just in time to see the Highlands Community Theatre production of William Inge's PICNIC. Mr. Barratt is a personal friend of Mr. Inge's and states that PICNIC is his favorite play by Inge.

Mr. Barratt met William Inge in St.

BENEFIT BRIDGE AT LEE'S INN

For an evening to be keenly enjoyed and to be remembered pleasantly, come this Thursday evening, July 13, to Lee's Inn. First at 6:15, Lee's Inn will serve their rightly famous buffet dinner. Mr. Lee is giving to the Hudson Library, one half of the total receipts from the $3 dinner charge...an outstanding gift.

If you have not made a dinner reservation, do hurry up and do so by calling Mrs. Overton Chambers, 2310 or Mrs. Pearl Hemphill, 4820.

Card playing will begin at 8:00 and the tables will be set up in advance. You may play duplicate bridge, contract, canasta or other games. Each player will be asked to give a $2 donation to the Hudson Library. Speaking of donations you should
