TRIBUTE TO MRS. THOMPSON

The following letter was written several years ago on Mother's Day by Mrs. Sarah McNamee to her mother, Mrs. Helen Thompson, who passed away recently. Feeling that the many friends of Mrs. Thompson would appreciate the opportunity of reading this fitting tribute to Mrs. Thompson, I asked Sarah's permission to publish the letter which follows.

Edwina D. Summer

Dearest Mama:

Mother's Day is almost here again and I have always felt that Mother's Day should

N.C.GOV. TO SPEAK AT FRANKLIN

At the Annual Dinner Meeting of the Franklin Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday evening, August 8, the principal speaker will be the Hon. Terry Sanford, Governor of North Carolina, Bob Sloan, president of the Chamber has announced.

Governor Sanford has shown great interest in the development of Western North Carolina. Business men and government groups from this area are invited to attend the dinner. The Highlands Chamber of Commerce and government officials have been asked to attend, and tickets for the dinner will be on sale at the Chamber this week.

SECOND HCT PRODUCTION PLAYING

The Highlands Community Theatre is now presenting its second production of the season, George Bernard Shaw's "ANDROCLAS AND THE LION." The play, which opened last night, is based on the persecution of the early Christians by the Romans. The unusually large cast includes many names and faces quite familiar to Highlands theatregoers.

Harold Swope, who will be remembered for his performance as Harold in the first play of the season, "PICNIC," plays

BENEFIT AUCTION TO BE HELD

Sunday, August 20th, is the date for the Auction for the Benefit of the Fund Drive for the Highlands Community Hospital. The auction is to be given through the generosity of the Highlands Art Gallery and will be held in the Art Gallery Building.

Anyone interested in donating articles for this auction may contact Mrs. J.M. Morrow, phone 3282, Mrs. Bennett Rose, 3136, or Mrs. W.C. Caye, 4797. All articles will be called for if they are too large to be delivered.

The auction held last year by the Gallery netted a sum of $3,000 for the Fund Drive, and it is hoped that this year it will be just as successful.
