her concert debut at the age of four and her Town Hall debut at the age of seven, and was an international celebrity before reaching her teens.

Sunday's concert features four outstanding southern musicians as soloists, Linda Sanford, soprano; Beverly Wolff, mezzo-soprano; Eugen Talley-Schmidt, tenor; and Peter Harrower, bass-baritone.

Miss Sanford, formerly from Alabama and currently from Boston, is a staff member of the famed Boston Symphony Orchestra's public relations department. Miss Wolff, of Sumter, S. C., is a member of the Brevard Music Center Board of Trustees, and is one of the most outstanding young singers today. Eugene Talley-Schmidt of Rome, Georgia, has appeared in grand opera throughout America and Europe; he recently signed a three-year contract with the Dusseldorf Opera.

Peter Harrower of Atlanta, Georgia, completed a three-year tour of Europe in 1959 to return to grand opera appearances in this country receiving rave notices. He has just returned from Europe where he

"IT STARTED IN NAPLES"

If you can't go to sunny Italy for a good time, the next best thing is to hie yourself to the Galax Theatre Sun-Mon, August 6-7, where the romantic comedy, "It Started in Naples" will be shown.

Starring Clark Gable, Sophia Loren, and Vittorio De Sica along with a sensational young Italian boy, Marietto, and his handsome compatriot, Paolo Carlini, "It Started in Naples" was filmed on the picturesque Isle of Capri and in Rome and Naples. It captures all of the colorful excitement of those magnificent places as it unfolds the story of an American lawyer (Gable) in Naples to settle the estate of his late brother.

Learning that his brother died bankrupt but leaving a nine-year-old child who is being cared for by an aunt (Miss Loren), Gable wants to take him back to America. The story turns into a tug-of-war between the two over possession of Marietto. Sophia is a honky-tonk entertainer whose "care" of the boy has resulted in his becoming adept at picking pockets, smoking cigarettes and drinking wine.

For those who like musicals, "It Started in Naples" boasts four new tunes, with the luscious Sophia Loren not only singing and dancing, but actually rock-'n'-rolling, accompanied by the Neapolitan answer to Elvis, guitar-playing Carlini. It is a treat to eye, ear and funnybone.
