CALLED BOARD MEETING

On Friday evening, July 28, a called meeting of the Town Board of Highlands was held in the Town Office for the purpose of discussing the Highlands Quarry situation.

Besides the Board members, there were present approximately 15 residents from the Bear Pen Mountain section. Both sides of the issue gave their views, but no immediate action was taken. Mr. Guy Houk, town attorney, will meet with the board on August 7 to discuss the matter.

PRESBYTERIAN NEWS

The friends and members of the First Presbyterian Church of Highlands will meet for a "cover dish supper" Monday, August 6, at 6:30 in the Recreation Room of the Church. Following the supper the group will hear a brief message by Mr. Kenneth S. Keyes of Highlands and Miami. Mr. Keyes has served for many years as an active Christian layman.

According to an announcement by the Session, the project of the congregation to build a new manse is near completion. The manse building has been finished and the pastor and his family have moved into the house; the landscaping is expected to be completed within the near future.

This announcement also included a report on the progress of the Manse Building Fund Drive. Latest un-official figures indicate that over $18,300 has been received toward the goal of $19,500. A special service of dedication of the offerings made toward the manse work, will be held as a part of the morning worship services of Sunday, August 6th.

MUSIC CENTER NEARING CLOSE

Closing activities for the 25th anniversary season of the Brevard Music Center's Transylvania Music Camp will encompass a full week end of concerts. The Brevard Music Festival, the final three weeks of "A Summer Festival of Music," will open on Wednesday, August 9.

The guest appearance of Joan Field, violinist, opens the week end's concerts on Friday evening at 8:15. A resident of Miami Beach, Florida, Miss Field has studied both in this country and in Paris. She recently made several recordings for a major record company.

According to the tradition of the Music Center, each student musical organization will perform on Saturday. These concerts will mark the official close of the camp season. The Hilltopper Concert Band, the Hilltopper Symphony Orchestra, and the Transylvania Concert Band and Transylvania Symphony will perform.

Former child prodigy, Ruth Slenczynska will be guest soloist on Saturday evening, and will appear in recital on Sunday evening. Miss Slenczynska made
