BENEFIT AUCTION---AUGUST 20

The Benefit Auction for the Highlands Community Hospital is only a week away---, Sunday, August 20. It will be held again this year in the Highlands Art Gallery---the time is 2:00 p.m.

Besides an interesting array of items to be auctioned, there will be a fine selection of baked goods. This event should prove, as it has in the past, to be a most profitable and enjoyable occasion for all---and certainly for a worthy cause.

Those who might be interested in donating any articles for this auction may contact Mrs. W. C. Caye, phone 4797, Mrs. Bennett Rose, 3136, or Mrs. J. M. Morrow, 3282, and the articles will be picked up by someone.

VOCATIONAL HOME ECONOMICS TO BE TAUGHT IN LOCAL SCHOOL

Supt. H. Bueck and Prin. Charles Hendrix have announced that a full-time teacher has been employed to teach vocational Home Economics in Highlands High School. This course is made possible through the additional budget set up as part of Governor Sanford's Quality Education Program, the funds for which come from the new state sales tax schedule.
