AN UNSUNG HERO

It is said that neither rain nor snow nor sleet or hail can keep the mail from going through. This slogan certainly applies to our jovial mail carrier from Walhalla, South Carolina, Mr. Gene Mays, who has been traveling his accustomed route for the past 45 years in faithful adherence to his duty as a postman. With his ever-constant cigar and familiar slow-gaited easy manner he has become a landmark in this area.

Mr. Mays began carrying the mail in 1916 and has kept at it ever since. He took over his father's route on a bicycle

RESULTS -- BENEFIT AUCTION

The Benefit Auction held on Sunday, August 20th, in the Highlands Art Gallery, netted approximately $2500 for the Highlands Community Hospital.

The Hospital committees and staff wish to express their appreciation to the Art Gallery, Mr. Trock and all personnel, for their contribution of the gallery and their valuable aid at the Auction. They would also like to thank all merchants and local people who contributed items to be auctioned, as well as the number of Franklin merchants who donated articles.

There was a very good attendance at the auction and it proved highly successful for all concerned. The door prize, a lovely silver tea set, was turned back in by the generous winner, to be auctioned off.

PRES. MODERATOR TO PREACH HERE

The Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, Dr. Wallace McPherson Alston, is scheduled to preach at the Highlands Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening, August 27. Dr. Alston, who was elected to the highest office of the Presbyterian Church at the meeting of its General Assembly in April of 1961, will deliver the sermon at the installation of Rev. G. Daniel McCall, as pastor of the Highlands Presbyterian Church. The service is to be held at 7:30 p.m.

The Moderator, Dr. Alston, is the President of Agnes Scott College in Deca-
