HIGH TIME

Bubbling over with comedy, songs and zany hi-jinx "High Time," starring Bing Crosby, Fabian, Tuesday Weld and Nicole Maury, in Cinemascope and Deluxe Color will play Wed-Thur, September 13-14, at the Galax Theatre.

The college campus has been the setting for a good many movies but never have the portals of higher education been entered by as many merry madcaps as in the production of "High Time."

The comedy ball starts rolling from the minute Bing Crosby, a 51-year-old self made millionaire, decides he wants a college education, and enters as a freshman with roommates Fabian, Richard Beymer, and Patrick Adiarte.

Thus the story starts and it doesn't end till four years later when "Der Bingle" gets his sheepskin. In the interim he goes through the agonies of gym class; the mortifications of fraternity initiation...washing cars, shining shoes, climbing rickety pyramids of crates at the class bonfire and the tortures of romance with Nicole Maury, the school's French teacher.

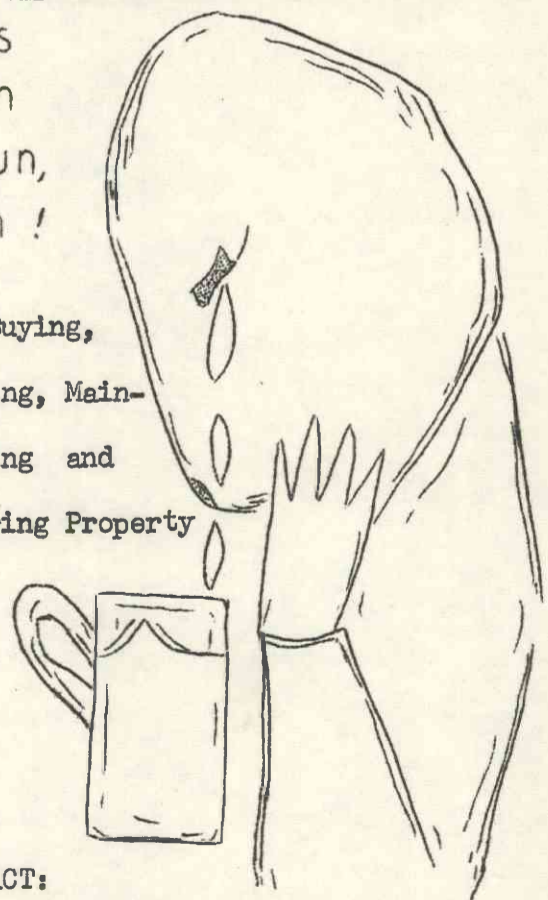

Crosby's movie and rewarding triumph is known throughout the world. Fabian is a household word these days and Tuesday Weld has rocketed to fame in the past year, too. Nicole Maury, lovely French beauty, is well known to American audiences in fine roles.

All the ingredients have been assembled with the star-studded cast and the original story to make "High Time" one of the high points of hilarity for the year.
