

(HCH BOARD CON'T)

serious need for private rooms.

In order to start the Fund Drive it will be necessary to plan a program of details with more care than ever. The Chairman of the Drive will be on a co-basis and it is a pleasure to report that our spiritual leaders of the community are wholeheartedly behind us: Rev. R. Clinton Bailey, Baptist Minister; Our Lady of the Mountain, Catholic Church; Rev. G. Dan McCall, Presbyterian Minister; Rev. Hervey L. Stewart, Cashiers Baptist Minister; Rev. John C. Vernon, Methodist Minister; and Gale D. Webbe, Priest of the Church of the Incarnation.

An Executive Committee has been formed that will carry on the many details of the Fund Drive. This Executive Committee is made up of the following: Mrs. Foy Perry, who has served the Highlands Hospital for many years; Mrs. Arabella Burke, who has also been a valuable worker in the past Fund Drives; Mr. Ralph DeVille, who is owner of the Stone Lantern; plus an unnamed member; and Mr. Robert L. Turner, who has come to Highlands for the past twenty years but who now has a summer residence at Sapphire Valley. Mr. Turner is perhaps the least known in the Highlands circles, but will be identified with the summer visitors as being connected with the Genuine Parts Company in Atlanta. He was president of this Company from 1948 to 1955 at which time he retired.

Further plans will be forthcoming from week to week in regard to the Fund Drive. Let's start thinking about our hospital and be willing to back us the plans of the hospital and help them go over the top as in previous years.

"TEENAGE MILLIONAIRE"

"Teenage Millionaire" opening Sunday and Monday, June 10-11 at the GALAX THEATRE, through United Artists release, offers---at last---a film about teenagers who are not delinquents. In this bright, upbeat and amusing musical, the country's top teenage stars appear well behaved, well spoken and well dressed. All highly talented, they deport themselves strictly for fun and entertainment, with no greater problem of adjustment than getting used to owning one million dollars.

In the title role, 18-year old Jimmy Clanton displays an easy-going acting style calculated to charm movie fans the way his phenomenally successful "sweet-singing" has wooed record fans.

As his aunt in the film, fluttery Zasu Pitts tries to keep the orphaned teenage millionaire out of trouble. She hires Rocky Graziano as a sort of bodyguard-godfather, to keep tabs on him and Rocky in turn enlists the support of Maurice "Dobberman" Gosfield and glamorous Joan Tabor, all of whom conspire to keep Jimmy from becoming romantically entangled with cute, vivacious Diane Jergens. Twenty sweet and swinging musical interludes later, all filmed in a brand new screen process called "Musicolor," boy finally gets girl.
