TEA GIVEN FOR PAT AND VERNON WILSON

A tea in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wilson was given Sunday, June 3 at the home of Mrs. Grace Watson. The hostesses were Mrs. Francis Wright, Mrs. Don Watson, and Mts. Albert Duke. Each guest was given a little wedding bell to wear. A large wedding cake was served. Presiding at the punch bowl was Miss Nancy Duke; Miss Linda Wright and Miss Marion Watson served; and Miss Barbara Wright had charge of the guest book. The hostesses presented the couple with a lovely wedding gift.

The couple was married Saturday, May 26 in Toccoa, Ga. Mrs. Wilson is the former Miss Pat Setser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Setser, of Franklin, N. C. She is a student at Western Carolina College, and will graduate in August with a degree in education. Vernon is the son of the late Mrs. Helen Wilson of Highlands and the late Mr. Sam Wilson of Highlands and Asheville.

The couple will reside near Anderson, South Carolina.

LT. COL. SAUSSY IN MOVIE

Lt. Col. George S. Saussy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Saussy of Highlands, will appear in the coming attraction at the GALAX THEATRE "Marines, Let's Go." Last year, when the picture was filmed in Japan, George, as commanding officer of a tank unit in the U. S. Marine Corps, was selected to appear with his 3rd tank battalion in the motion picture. The picture, filmed on Mt. Fuji, depicts a struggle tank and tank killers. The tanks George and his unit used are very fast and maneuverable. George will be in tank 6 in the picture. Following the filming, the whole 3rd tank battalion was invited to a party given by the movie makers.

Lt. Col. Saussy is now stationed at Fort Knox where he is teaching Army Officer Tank Tactics.

"Marines, Let's Go" will be shown at the GALAX THEATRE Saturday, June 9.
