C. where they will hold jobs; Robert Miller and John Kahler will caddy and do yard work; Larry Wood will be going to Richmond, Va. where he will work with his brother doing construction work.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The Highlands Home Demonstration Club met Monday, May 21 in the Home Economics Department of Highlands School. A demonstration on making decorator bedspreads was given by Florence Sherrill, Home Economics Agent for Macon County. Hostesses were Mrs. Irene Rowland and Mrs. Edna Bryson. Devotions were given by Sarah Crunkleton. Mrs J. B. Burnette presided over the meeting in the absence of the Presidnet.

The next Home Demonstration Meeting is scheduled for Monday, June 18, at 7:30 P.M. in the Recreation Hall of the Methodist Church.

HELEN'S BARN LEASED

This summer Helen's Barn will be run by Mr. Louis Osteen, Manager, of Anderson, S. C. and Mr. Preston Byers, also of Anderson, who have leased it from the Highlands Development Corporation. Mr. Osteen is a student at Anderson College. Mr. Byers is the owner of Byers style center in Highlands. Square dancing will be held regularly, as well as performances given by well-known square dance teams.

In the area of Helen's Barn is other recreation for residents and visitors of Highlands. The Hi-Ho Chip 'n Putt Golf Course offers an opportunity to play on the 9 hole, par 3 course. Shady Lane Miniature Golf Course gives fun for "old and young alike." Both are now open for the summer.

NEW BUSINESS OPENS

Mr. James Crawford, originally from Murphy, N. C., has opened his new business office, the Crawford Patrol Service. It is located on main street next to the HIGHLANDER office in the old Edwards building. Mr. Crawford moved here recently, and will be joined later by his wife, Evelyn, and two daughters, Martha and Carla. They plan to be year around residents in Highlands. Mr. Crawford was formerly a highway patrolman in California before coming to Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barrett of Washington, D. C., arrived Tuesday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George Saussy at Highfield.
